The mission of experts in technical cooperation of AIEA in the Republic of Moldova Between 28-30 August 2024 in the Republic of Moldova, the visit of the expert of the International Atomic Energy Agency takes place, Mr. Dmitri Shutov, on the project of MOL6012 Fortifying the accessibility to the high quality cancer management, which takes place within the Oncological Institute. Radioactive that will result from nuclear medicine activities, on 29.08.2024 the working meeting took place, with the participation of the director of the Oncological Institute, Mr. Ruslan Baltaga, of the Deputy Interim Director of ANRAN, Mrs. Elena Mrsa, of the radioprotection expert from the Oncological Institute, Mrs. Galina Rusnac, Discuss:

concerns about radioactive waste management;
Radiopharmaceutical therapy-proposed rooms evaluation; And with the reconstruction of an old building in which the Iodine radiotherapy department will temporarily operate.