

The 68th session of the General Conference of International Atomic Energy Agency held in Vienna

Between September 16-20, 2024 the delegation of the Republic of Moldova in the composition of the ambassador and the permanent representative of the Republic of Moldova in addition to the international organizations based in Vienna, E.S. Mrs. Victoria Roşa, of the interim deputy director of ANRAR, Elena Mrsa and the III Secretary of the Mission of the Republic of Moldova in Vienna, Victoria Alexandrov, participates in, the 68th session of the General Conference of the International Agency for Atomic Energy (IAEA) held in Vienna. emphasized the position of our country on global nuclear security and international cooperation for peaceful use of nuclear technologies. At the same time, the concern of the Republic of Moldova was expressed on the increased risks for nuclear security in the region and highlighted the constant support of our country for the IAEA efforts to monitor and report the situation. such as nuclear medicine, radiation protection and radioactive waste management. For the next cycle of technical cooperation, the Republic of Moldova has submitted two new national projects meant to improve the management of radioactive waste and to extend the national capacities in the field of nuclear applications for health. international in the field of nuclear security.

