

CTBTO support for the Republic of Moldova

within the ANRAR with the support of the international organization that monitors nuclear tests (CTBTO) on June 24-28, 2024, the installation of the capacity consolidation system (CBS) took place at the CDN of the Republic of Moldova through which the ANRAN officials have access to the data provided by the automatic stations that monitor the parameters of the nuclear tests. href = "<https://anranr.gov.md/upload/files/Rapoarte/ctbto/ctbto-cbs-installation-moldova.pdf>"> CTBTO-Capacity Building System Installation

The main objectives achieved during the installation visit were:
the equipment of the capacity development system; The data is delivered to the real-time CBS server from the IDC and from various seedlink servers available on the Internet;
-Two jobs have been set up for NDC analysts from ANRRR and the use of NDC-in-Box components has been shown for the annexation of the technical notes provided to the operators to maintain the regular functions of the system. information to interested institutions in the given domain.

